

Peace Scholarships

to help high school graduates attend Edmonds Community College to enter careers that will uplift and unite the community

Sponsored by	Amount
Tulalip Tribes	4 scholarships, $1000 each
Anonymous	3 scholarships, $1000 each
Snohomish County Peace Action	$1000
Snohomish County Peace Action	$500
Edmonds Unitarian Universalist Church	2 scholarships, $500 each
Dr. Marjory Krieger	$500
Eachus family	$500

The application deadline is April 9, 2009

Applications must be submitted online at <http://foundation.edcc.edu/scholarships/>

Scholarships are administered by the Edmonds Community College Foundation.

Many other scholarships are also available through the Edmonds Community College Foundation.

For more information about scholarships, go to <http://foundation.edcc.edu/scholarships/> or call (425)640-1274.

Students may combine multiple scholarships.

For an overview of Edmonds Community College programs of study, go to <http://www.edcc.edu/catalog/> or http://programs.edcc.edu/_divlist.php

Snohomish County Peace Action meets the third Friday of every month at 23010 84th Ave W, Edmonds Snohomish County Peace Action sponsors the annual Linda Jewell Memorial Essay Contest in Edmonds School District middle schools.

For more information about Snohomish County Peace Action, go to <http://www.vfp143.org/peaceaction/>