Michael Tivana

“UNLEASING THE DOGS OF WAR”

Theme: What Are The Consequences Upon Humanity For Waging War.

What are the consequences for waging war; what happens to the quality of life of a warring society? Will there ever come a time when war is abolished? What are the alternatives to war? In all the turmoil of these chaotic times this is a time of opportunity for all humanity.

Seattle-based political activist Michael Tivana writes and speaks against war and for peace to college classrooms, churches, workshops, and events in the peace movement.

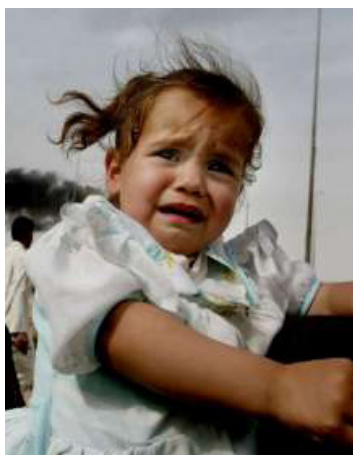

His talks are designed to encourage, inspire, and illumine ways to take action in waging peace.
